CAUSE

Mr. Contino has failed to report to this officer on November 4, 2008; December 2, 2008; and January 6, 2009. The defendant also failed to report for urine drug testing on 11 occasions from December 10, 2009, through January 31, 2009. Mr. Contino has not been employed and has been having relationship difficulties which has lead to difficulties with his residence. This action is requested because Mr. Contino states that he wants to get his life in order and a term in the residential reentry center (RRC) will provide safe, stable environment that will allow him to re-establish a stable residence and employment. An extension of supervision is needed as the current expiration date will precede completion of the RRC term.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
